- The option to terminate this Agreement anytime by providing [#] days' written notice.
- not have the option to terminate this Agreement unless there is reasonable cause, as defined in Section VII.

IX. Independent Contractor Status. The Contractor, under the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) code, is an independent contractor, and neither the Contractor's employees nor contract personnel are, or shall be deemed, the Client's employees.

In its capacity as an independent contractor, Contractor agrees and represents: Contractor has the right to perform services for others during the term of this Agreement; Contractor has the sole right to control and direct the means, manner, and method by which the Services required by this Agreement will be performed. Contractor shall select the routes taken, starting and ending times, days of work, and order in which the work is performed; the Contractor has the right to hire an assistant(s) as subcontractor or to use employees to provide the Services required under this Agreement. Neither the Contractor, nor the Contractor's employees or personnel shall be required to wear any uniforms provided by the Client. The Services required by this Agreement shall be performed by the Contractor, Contractor's employees or personnel, and the Client will not hire, supervise, or pay assistants to help the Contractor; Neither Contractor nor Contractor's employees or personnel shall receive any training from the Client in the professional skills necessary to perform the Services required by this Agreement. The Client shall require neither the Contractor nor the Contractor's employees or personnel to devote full-time to the performance of the Services required by this Agreement.

X. Business Licenses, Permits, and Certificates. The Contractor represents and warrants that all employees and personnel associated shall comply with federal, state, and local laws requiring any required licenses, permits, and certificates necessary to perform the Services under this Agreement.

XI. Federal and State Taxes. Under this Agreement, the Client shall not be responsible for: Withholding FICA, Medicare, Social Security, or any other federal or state withholding taxes from the Contractor's payments to employees or personnel or making payments on behalf of the Contractor; Making federal or state unemployment compensation contributions on the Contractor's behalf; and the payment of all taxes incurred related to or while performing the Services under this Agreement, including all applicable income taxes and, if the Contractor is not a corporation, all applicable self-employment taxes. Upon demand, the Contractor shall provide the Client with proof that such payments have been made.

XII. Benefits of Contractor's Employees. The Contractor understands and agrees that they are solely responsible and shall be liable for all benefits provided to their employees, including but not limited to retirement plans, health insurance, vacation time-off, sick pay, personal leave, or any other benefit provided.

XIII. Unemployment Compensation. The Contractor shall be solely responsible for the unemployment compensation payments on behalf of their employees and personnel. The Contractor shall not be entitled to unemployment compensation concerning the Services performed under this Agreement.

XIV. Workers' Compensation. The Contractor shall be responsible for providing all workers' compensation insurance on behalf of their employees. If the Contractor hires employees to perform any work under this Agreement, the Contractor agrees to grant workers' compensation coverage to the extent required by law. Upon request by the Client, the Contractor must provide certificates proving workers' compensation insurance at any time during the performance of the Service.

XV. Indemnification. The Contractor shall indemnify and hold the Client harmless from any loss or liability from performing the Services under this Agreement.

XVI. Confidentiality. The Contractor acknowledges that it will be necessary for the Client to disclose certain confidential and proprietary information to the Contractor for the Contractor to perform their duties under this Agreement. The Contractor acknowledges that disclosing to a third party or misusing this proprietary or confidential information would irreparably harm the Client. Accordingly, the Contractor will not disclose or use, either during or after the term of this Agreement, any proprietary or confidential information of the Client without the Client's prior written permission except to the extent necessary to perform Services on the Client's behalf.

Proprietary or confidential information includes but is not limited to The written, printed, graphic, or electronically recorded materials furnished by Client for Contractor to use; Any written or tangible information stamped "confidential," "proprietary," or with a similar legend, or any information that Client makes reasonable efforts to maintain the secrecy of business or marketing plans or strategies, customer lists, operating procedures, trade secrets, design formulas, know-how and processes, computer programs and inventories, discoveries, and improvements of any kind, sales projections, and pricing information; and information belonging to customers and suppliers of the Client about whom the Contractor gained knowledge as a result of the Contractor's Services to the Client. Upon termination of the Contractor's Services to the Client, or at the Client's request, the Contractor shall deliver to the Client all materials in the Contractor's possession relating to the Client's business. The Contractor acknowledges any breach or threatened breach of confidentiality that this Agreement will result in irreparable harm to the Client for which damages would be an inadequate remedy. Therefore, the Client shall be entitled to equitable relief, including an injunction, in the event of such breach or threatened breach of confidentiality. Such equitable relief shall be in addition to the Client's rights and remedies otherwise available at law.

XVII. Proprietary Information. Proprietary information, under this Agreement, shall include:

The product of all work performed under this Agreement ("Work Product"), including without limitation all notes, reports, documentation, drawings, computer programs, inventions, creations, works, devices, models, work-in-progress and deliverables will be the sole property of the Client, and Contractor hereby assigns to the Client all right, title and interest therein, including but not limited to all audiovisual, literary, moral rights and other copyrights, patent rights, trade secret rights and other proprietary rights therein. Contractor retains no right to use the Work Product and agrees not to challenge the validity of the Client's ownership of the Work Product.

The Contractor hereby assigns to the Client all rights, title, and interest in any and all photographic images, videos, or audio recordings made by the Client during the Contractor's work for them, including, but not limited to, any royalties, proceeds, or other benefits derived from such photographs or recordings; and The Client will be entitled to use Contractor's name and/or likeness in advertising and other materials.

XVIII. No Partnership. This Agreement does not create a partnership relationship between the Client and the Contractor. Unless otherwise directed, the Contractor shall have no authority to enter into contracts on the Client's behalf or represent the Client in any manner.

XIX. Assignment and Delegation. The Contractor may assign rights and delegate duties under this Agreement to other individuals or entities acting as subcontractors (“Subcontractor”). The Contractor recognizes that they shall be liable for all work performed by the Subcontractor and shall hold the Client harmless of any liability concerning their performed work.

The Contractor shall be responsible for any confidential or proprietary information shared with the Subcontractor by Sections XVI & XVII of this Agreement. If the Subcontractor shares any such information to third (3rd) parties, the Contractor shall be made liable.

XX. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed under the laws in the State of Virginia [GOVERNING LAW].

XXI. Severability. This Agreement shall remain in effect if a section or provision is unenforceable or invalid. All remaining sections and provisions shall be deemed legally binding unless a court rules that any such provision or section is invalid or unenforceable, thus limiting the effect of another provision or section. In such case, the affected provision or section shall be enforced as limited.

XXII. Breach Waiver. Any waiver by the Client of a breach of any section of this Agreement by the Contractor shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by the Contractor.

XXIII. Additional Terms and Conditions. [ADDITIONAL TERMS].

XXIV. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and any attachments or addendums represent the entire agreement between the parties. Therefore, this Agreement supersedes prior agreements, promises, conditions, or understandings between the Client and Contractor.
